Narrative:

Chattahoochee Valley Community College (CVCC) faculty are expected to be involved in the governance of the institution as published in the Faculty Policy and Procedures Handbook. Faculty are involved in academic and governance matters in nearly every facet of the College operations through committee work and open discussions during college-wide meetings. By design faculty serve as members on all 27 of the College's committees and work teams. Faculty are the primary voice on the following committees as evidenced by the Standing Committees 2012-13 - Faculty Participation Analysis. Faculty also have opportunities throughout the year to suggest policy changes and updates through the Policy Change Suggestion Form.
